St. Patrick's Day March 17, 2020

St. Patrick of Ireland is one of the world's most popular saints. He was born in Roman Britain and when he was about 14, he was captured by Irish pirates during a raiding party and taken to Ireland as a slave to herd and tend sheep. For 6 years, Patrick was a slave in Ireland. Patrick had just enough food to live on, and lived in a tiny hut that was damp and cold.

But something strange and wonderful happened in Ireland. All alone, frightened for his life, and among people who worshiped trees and stones, Patrick opened his heart to God. Patrick started to pray. He thought about God all the time, and it gave him peace of mind. He knew that no matter how much he was suffering, God loved him.

Eventually, Patrick escaped from slavery and traveled to Gaul. We're not sure exactly how much time Patrick spent in Gaul. But it was enough time for him to draw closer to God as he prayed and studied in a monastery. One night, he had a vision, Patrick heard voices. He heard many voices, pleading with him. "Come back," the voices cried, "come back and walk once more among us." St. Patrick knew it was the Irish people calling him.

He returned to the very people who had stolen him from his family, and worked him mercilessly as a slave. Before he left Gaul, Patrick was made the bishop of Ireland. He then traveled across the sea to teach Ireland about Jesus Christ. He preached using simple examples, for instance, he used the three-leaf clover to show people how there could be three persons in one God.

He is the author of the prayer called St. Patrick's Breastplate: "Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ within me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ at my right, Christ at my left." He died on March 17th, 461.

Message from our Grand Knight

My Dear Brother Knights,

Lent is upon us and represents a time of preparation for our Lord's Glorious Resurrection! Christ's Passion and Death resonates across time and deeply moves and motivates all Christians as we strive to become more like Him: to surrender ourselves to His infinite love and mercy and to put service to God and His children first in our lives.

We will be commencing the 40 Cans for Lent this weekend and I ask that you all strive to participate. Come 15 minutes early to Mass and stay 15 minutes afterwards to help man the booth. I exhort you all to prayerfully consider this as a true Lenten sacrifice for those who are less fortunate and to honor the memory of our dearly departed Brother Gene Wolf.

Lent is a perfect opportunity to also redouble our efforts regarding the Blessed Campaign. I encourage you all to take the time to be kind and helpful to those you meet in your day to day lives, especially strangers and those in need of a helping hand.

May God bless you and your families abundantly during this Lenten season and may His love transform us all into the people that God calls us to be.

Fraternally in Christ,

Brother Jim

Council Programs Director's Message

Dear Brothers,

In these days leading up to Easter, please remember that this is a time for reflection. Lent for me is a time when I think about where I am in my relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ. There have been many things happening recently that cause fear in our minds. For me it has been the death of a good friend, Gene Wolf, and realizing that we are only on this earth for a short time. The spread of the coronavirus has also caused concern for many people. This Sunday's Gospel will be about Jesus being transfigured before Peter, James, and John. The Gospel reads "they fell prostrate and were very much afraid", I also have been afraid about my worthiness to be in Jesus' presence when my time comes. However, as the Gospel continues "Jesus came and touched them (Peter, James, and John), saying 'Rise, and do not be afraid". I feel that when I study the scriptures and pray, I am being touched by the Lord and he is telling me to Rise and not be afraid. I've been ill lately, recovering from foot surgery and now a bad cold, but I keep all of you in my prayers because I know many of you are facing bigger hardship. I hope to recover quickly and look forward to being with all of you soon.

God Bless you all.

Fraternally,

Brother John Rodriguez

Membership Director's Message

Brother John O'Neil Membership Director

Dear Brother Knights,

There is no Membership Director's message for this month, stayed tuned next month for Brother John's message.

District Deputy Message

Michael Klett, DD-120 .

Dear Brothers,

Lent has started and the season of praying, fasting, and alms giving is well underway. If you have started a Lenten Sacrifice it isn't too late start. Our Lord doesn't keep score. It doesn't matter how many times you've messed up your Lenten sacrifices this Lent or if you haven't started yet. Start again. Make the rest of Lent the best Lent of your life. The struggles and self denials are what matter, not how perfect you were at them. In fact, I might suggest that if you are perfect in your Lenten Sacrifices that you aren't trying hard enough.

Service Program Reports are due on March 31. Yes, they are actually due at Supreme on April 1 but using the March deadline has more urgency and will get them done by April. Program Chairman should be getting these done and submitted to the Council. Grand Knights have a lot to do and can delegate the task of completing them. I encourage it as a matter of fact.

Wheelchairs have been purchased. Specifics for delivery and distribution are being worked out. But Knights with trucks will probably be needed to get the wheelchairs from the delivery point to the distribution points. If you can help please do. And I assure you that participation in the distribution of wheelchairs to vets in need is very rewarding. Please help out there even if you don't have a truck.

In other areas each Council should be nominating officers for next year and electing delegates for the State Convention. And of course, our Worthy State Deputy, Brother Dave Abbott, is asking every council to recruit with Founders Day Membership Drives.

Vivat Jesus,
Brother Mike Klett
District Deputy, CA District 120

Field Agent's Message

Mark F.Yubeta - FIC

Dear Brothers,

LTC is an important piece of the puzzle for LTC coverage in your family portfolio, please take some time out of your schedule to meet with me. Remember, long-term care policies are underwritten based on your health, and you most likely will never be any healthier than you are today There are many financial consultants and retirement authorities who emphasize the need for a long-term care (LTC) product for estate preservation and family protection. While many commercial life insurance companies have gotten out of the long-term care business, the Knights of Columbus considers LTC a very important piece of the family protection puzzle. The Order has been actively offering our members this product for nearly 15 years without a premium increase on current policyholders. Members who wisely purchased an LTC plan from the Knights in 2000 are still paying the same premiums today. Even better, our LTC coverage is backed by the full strength of the Order, which remains rooted in our strong Catholic values. Talk about stability when it counts.

Fraternally,
Mark Yubeta

IMPORTANT DAYS AND SAINT FEAST DAYS IN MARCH

St. Katharine Drexel, Virgin March 3, 2020

Born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in the United States of America, on November 26, 1858, Katharine Drexel was the second daughter of Francis Anthony Drexel and Hannah Langstroth. Her father was a well known banker and philanthropist. Both parents instilled in their daughters the idea that their wealth was simply loaned to them and was to be shared with others.

When the family took a trip to the Western part of the United States, Katharine, as a young woman, saw the plight and destitution of the native Indian-Americans. This experience aroused her desire to do something specific to help alleviate their condition. This was the beginning of her lifelong personal and financial support of numerous missions and missionaries in the United States. The first school she established was St. Catherine Indian School in Santa Fe, New Mexico (1887).

Later, when visiting Pope Leo XIII in Rome, and asking him for missionaries to staff some of the Indian missions that she as a lay person was financing, she was surprised to hear the Pope suggest that she become a missionary herself. After consultation with her spiritual director, Bishop James O'Connor, she made the decision to give herself totally to God, along with her inheritance, through service to American Indians and Afro-Americans.

Her wealth was now transformed into a poverty of spirit that became a daily constant in a life supported only by the bare necessities. On February 12, 1891, she professed her first vows as a religious, founding the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament whose dedication would be to share the message of the Gospel and the life of the Eucharist among American Indians and Afro-Americans.

Founding and staffing schools for both Native Americans and Afro-Americans throughout the country became a priority for Katharine and her congregation. During her lifetime, she opened, staffed and directly supported nearly 60 schools and missions, especially in the West and Southwest United States. Her crowning educational focus was the establishment in 1925 of Xavier University of Louisiana, the only predominantly Afro-American Catholic institution of higher learning in the United States. Religious education, social service, visiting in homes, in hospitals and in prisons were also included in the ministries of Katharine and the Sisters.

She died on March 3, 1955. Katharine Drexel was canonized by Pope John Paul II on October 1, 2000.

St. Cyril of Jerusalem, Bishop and Doctor of the Church March 18th, 2020

On March 18, the Roman Catholic Church honors St. Cyril of Jerusalem, a fourth-century bishop and Doctor of the Church whose writings are still regarded as masterful expressions of Christian faith. St. Cyril is also remembered for his exhaustive Biblical knowledge, and his endurance in the face of misunderstanding and opposition.

Cyril was most likely born in Jerusalem around the year 315, shortly after the legalization of Christianity throughout the Roman Empire. Although that legalization put a stop to many of the persecutions that threatened the Church for two centuries, it indirectly gave rise to a number of internal controversies – both in regard to theology, and the jurisdiction of bishops – in which Cyril would find himself involved.

During his early years as a bishop, most likely around 350, he delivered a series of lectures to new initiates of the Catholic Church. Twenty-four of the lectures have survived and are studied today. In a 2007 general audience, Pope Benedict XVI praised the saint for providing an “integral” form of Christian instruction, “involving body, soul, and spirit.” St. Cyril's teaching, the Pope said, “remains emblematic for the catechetical formation of Christians today.

Unlike many other Eastern bishops and priests of the fourth century, Cyril did not allow his classical learning to lead him away from believing in the full humanity and divinity of Christ. However, the man who consecrated Cyril as a bishop, Archbishop Acacius of Caesarea, was an ally of the Arians – who claimed that Jesus was a creature and not God. Because of his connection to the archbishop, Cyril himself was unjustly suspected of heresy by many of his brother bishops.

But he also found himself at odds with Archbishop Acacius, who claimed to have jurisdiction over the birthplace of the Church. Altogether, these disputes led to Cyril being exiled from Jerusalem three times in the course of 20 years.

In 381, St. Cyril participated in the Second Ecumenical Council, which condemned two different forms of Arianism and added statements about the Holy Spirit to the Nicene Creed of 325. St. Cyril of Jerusalem died in 387, and was named a Doctor of the Church by Pope Leo XIII in 1883.

St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary March 19th, 2020

Mary was betrothed to Joseph; but before they came to live together she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit. Her husband Joseph, being an upright man and wanting to spare her disgrace, decided to divorce her informally. He had made up his mind to do this when suddenly the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because she has conceived what is in her by the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son and you must name him Jesus, because he is the one who is to save his people from their sins.”

A few verses in Matthew and Luke tell us all we know about St. Joseph. They provide just enough information to demonstrate why he was the divine choice to become the husband of Mary and the foster father of Jesus: A distant descendant of King David, he gave Christ the King his royal lineage and he was from Bethlehem, the city that Scripture predicted would produce the messiah (see Micah 5:1). And as a carpenter (see Matthew 13:55), Joseph was poor—Christ’s condition of preference.

Scripture portrays Joseph as open to God, obedient, upright, and, above all, kind. The saint displayed all of these qualities in his handling of Mary’s surprise pregnancy. Imagine the confusion of emotions that must have flooded him when Mary confided that she was going to have a baby by the Holy Spirit! As a devout observer of the law, Joseph knew that he might have to repudiate his betrothal. But his kindness and confidence in Mary prevented his taking such a harsh step, which would have shamed her. It may have even put her in danger of capital punishment (see Deuteronomy 22:20–21). Joseph must have agonized over his decision, praying intently about it. Finally he decided to divorce Mary quietly. But Joseph was open to God, and in a dream a divine messenger told him to take Mary home as his wife. Joseph did exactly as he was told.

Joseph’s wise dealing with Mary is a model for us when we face complex moral and personal issues. He subordinated his feelings to do what God required. He was open to whatever God wanted, and when he sensed the divine will, he obeyed.

The Annunciation of the Lord March 25th, 2020

The Solemnity of the Annunciation celebrates the coming of the Angel Gabriel to the Virgin Mary to announce to her the special mission God had chosen for her in being the mother of His only son.

“God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him . . . might have eternal life.” (John 3:16) At the Annunciation, God revealed this good news to Mary. She was the first to hear and to believe that God would do what he promised. Her faith told her that nothing is impossible for God. Mary also heard God’s invitation calling her to be the Virgin Mother of his Son.

This call meant that Jesus would be formed in her womb, and she, as his mother, would nourish and care for him. This call meant that she had a special place in God’s plan for salvation. Mary replied, “I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word.” (Luke 1:38) In saying yes, Mary agreed to God’s plan because she wanted what God wanted. She was willing to accept all the joy and pain, all the unexpected events. She was willing to bring Christ to a waiting world.

We are continually reminded of the importance of this feast to our salvation in various devotional prayers. Two examples that highlight the importance of this feast are the joyous mysteries of the Rosary and the Angelus.

The feast of the Annunciation began to be celebrated on this day during the fourth and fifth centuries, soon after the date for celebrating Christmas was universalized throughout the Church. This feast celebrates the Incarnation of the Second Person of the Trinity and the salvation of all mankind. This point of our salvation was deeply discussed by many of the Church fathers, to explain it to the faithful and to show the deep love God has for us. Some of the Church fathers who wrote on this were St. Athanasius, St. Gregory of Nyssa and St. Augustine.
