HAPPY INDEPENDENCE DAY! July 4, 2023

Independence Day (the Fourth of July) is a federal holiday in the United States commemorating the Declaration of Independence of the United States on July 4, 1776. The Continental Congress declared that the thirteen American colonies were no longer subject (and subordinate) to the monarch of Britain and were now united, free, and independent states.

The tradition of Independence Day celebrations goes back to the 18th century and the American Revolution. On July 2nd, 1776, the Continental Congress voted in favor of independence, and two days later delegates from the 13 colonies adopted the Declaration of Independence, a historic document drafted by Thomas Jefferson. From 1776 to the present day, July 4th has been celebrated as the birth of American independence, with festivities ranging from fireworks, parades and concerts to more casual family gatherings and barbecues. The Fourth of July, 2023 is on Tuesday July 4, 2023.

Notes From the Top: Grand Knights Message

Hello Brother Knights, and Welcome to our newest Knights! I hope you all find the spiritual growth that I have experienced since joining the Knights. Charity, Unity and Fraternity are the cornerstones of the Knights of Columbus.

1. Charity, the gifting of one's resources, that these resources may enrich the lives of those that are in need. Charity comes in many forms, the two we work with most are monetary or time. Both time and money hold value, and are guarded by an individual. I know I value my time, and guard the use of it well. It is safe to say, we all tithe to our church weekly what we can. Then we eke out a meager 1 hour a week to spend time getting to hear the word of our Lord. Is that what Jesus wants from us? I turned the question to myself when considering joining the Knights. Eyes wide open, I knew that I would "give" more of my time and resources to further our causes. What I did not bargain for, was the immense sense of accomplishment and joy in gifting my time, what I held so precious. A further bargain, was, it wasn't really that much time, and yet I was paid back ten fold through the work I did along side my fellow Knights. Just another hour a week or even one hour extra a month, helped put into perspective how much that time can impact those in the world that needed my time more than me. Selflessness is what Our Lord Jesus Christ taught us with his ultimate act of charity. Is it so much to ask of myself to give another hour, or two, to follow Him?

2. Unity. Together as one. One body. The body of Christ, and we are unified. The body or unity of His Holy Church. We as Knights are the right arm of our Church. I am proud to wear the lapel badge at mass, people recognize and respect. We bring a sense of Unity, that is powerful. Let us all reflect on that. Let us all wear our badges proudly. Greet our fellow parishioners and yes, ask the next man to join our ranks.

3. Fraternity. A fellowship, or Catholic men. In these times, we are quite possibly the most hated group on the planet. We embody what so many want to destroy. A group of men, who uphold and embrace what it means to be a Catholic man. God forbid we announce our beliefs let alone stand up for them. Yet stand we must, and we stand United in brotherhood.

I stand proudly, side by side with my brothers, and yes I am a man, a Catholic man. And yes, Our numbers must increase. It is our duty to bring other men into this fraternity, to show our parish, our community and yes, even our world, that there are men out there who stand for something spiritual and defined. I am blessed to walk this journey with my brothers, our fraternity of Knights.

Who will join me? How will the work and words of Charity, Unity and Fraternity manifest in you?

How will you help us grow? I challenge all of my brothers, whether new to our council or having dedicated so much of your time already, how will you renew your dedication to this fraternity?

I look forward to a new year for us and a time of getting back to the basics and growth.

Vivat Jesus!

Steen Sellers,
Grand Knight

Notes From the Top Deputy Grand Knight's Message:

Dear Brothers,

We are already off to a great start in the new Columbian year with four new brothers professing their commitment to the Knights' principles of charity, unity, and fraternity. Welcome brothers Thomas, Ed, Doug, and Ron!

As we enter a new Columbian year, we have an opportunity to renew our spiritual commitment as soldiers of Christ and servants to each other, our parish community, and the greater community around us. In a society that seeks to tear down that which unifies us in our faith, as Knights, we cannot sit on the sidelines.

Spiritually, let us call on the Holy Spirit to guide us. Let us also ask the Holy Spirit to stir the souls of men, not yet Knights, seeking refuge from a secular world. Then, let's be ready for these men. We can do this by increasing our visibility as a fraternity. They must know who we are, how we pray, how we serve and where to find us. We already have several events planned for the coming months, such as barbeques, pancake breakfasts, donuts and support of Saint Kilian's golf tournament that will provide these opportunities.

We can also push deeper into our own council for brother participation. As a fraternity, we certainly recognize the importance and priority of raising a family, a vocation and service to other ministries. However, there are small ways that brothers can contribute, such as attendance at a Corporate Communion or simply dropping off some bottles and cans once per month.

I look forward to serving the Lord, our parish community and you in the coming year as Deputy Grand Knight, with humility, and have fun while doing it.

Vivat Jesus!

Chancellor's Message

Dear Brothers,

Brother Norm has an excellent article on Faith and looking at the July calendar it's packed full of examples of faith and living our lives in faith. This his month we have excellent examples of the lives of saints living a life of Faith with St. Thomas, the Apostle, St. James the Greater, St. Mary Magdalene and Sts Martha, Mary and Lazarus. We also have St. Ignatius of Loyola, founder of the Jesuits and he gave us the Ignation Spiritual Exercises

To help with our prayer life, I am including in the newsletter praying the Luminous Mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of Blessed Virgin Mary with scripture as a prayer aid.

Fraternally in Christ,
Brother Tracy Higuchi

Financial Secretary's Message

Worthy Brother Knights,

July starts a new Columbian year and our newly elected slate of Officers is filled with energy and enthusiasm to make this a great year of Charity, Unity and Fraternity for our Council. We plan to start things off with a bang in July with a BBQ Brisket sale, and then in August we'll have our first Pancake Breakfast since before hall construction. We'll need lots of volunteers to lend a hand for these programs, but it's great fun and the money raised goes to good causes.

Now that the hall is complete and the pandemic behind us, many programs we have missed in recent years can start again, like our Christmas and Valentine's Day dances and New Year's Eve family night. We also have plans to host in-person third degree exemplification ceremonies for the many new Knights we expect to recruit during these activities. We plan to shift our existing programs into a higher gear, but if there is a charity close to your heart that you think our council should support, now is the time to talk about starting new programs. Please come to the monthly meeting and let your voice be heard.

One critical leadership role where we can still use help is our Membership Committee. We are looking for Knights who have a passion for evangelizing and mentoring other men to help with our membership committee. Many of you remember when Gene Williams and Ron Gryzanowski led a vibrant committee, and maybe you were recruited by either Ron or Gene. Every one of us is called to evangelize, but we also need a few men who are able to lead the recruiting effort, so if you are interested please speak with any of the Officers. New members are important to keep the council alive, much like the Church, and what better gift can you give a friend than to bring them closer to God through a fraternity of Catholic men?

Vivat Jesus!

Recycle Drive News

Dear Brothers,

May's collection netted $251.20. We filled 4.5 bins with bottles close to 1 bin with aluminum. Year-to-Date we've collected $2,319.33. Thank you to all brothers who helped on Saturday and to those who contributed with recyclables.

Upon receiving a rate update from CalRecycle last week, I discovered we could increase our revenue approximately $1,600/year by segregating PET1 (water bottles and clear food containers) from other plastics. We're already getting the highest rate for aluminum, but a lower comingled rate for plastic. With our dedicated labor on recycle Saturdays, we should be able to segregate the plastic. We'll give it a go at the next recycle.

Additionally, bi-metal cans (soup, vegetables, etc.) are recyclable if we keep separate from the aluminum. Allan Company will accept in bags, since we don't get much of this recyclable dropped off.

Thirdly, I will ask the parish office to remove "paper" from our bulletin advertisement. Since we get nothing for paper, we'll phase out over time. I'm already redirecting parish generated paper to Waste Management's recycle bin in the shed. Some parishioners bring both, so, we need to be careful not to discourage them altogether.

The next recycle drive is on July 15. The drive begins with set up at 6:45am and concludes at Noon. Please sign up at the monthly meeting or on SignUp Genius. See you on the 15th!

Fraternally,
Brother Jim Messmer

Notes From the Top: Field Agent's Message

Dear Brothers,

I always think of July as being the midpoint of the summer. I hope your summer is going well and you're getting to enjoy it. Summer vacations, kids out of school, lots of outdoor sports, tending flowers and vegetable gardens. Seems like there is so much more to keep up with than during the winter. Maybe that's what makes it seem like summer goes so fast and winter drags on. Summer will be gone before you know it!

For this month a couple of thoughts come to mind. A case that came up recently had to do with the ownership of life insurance policies. If you have policies on dependent children, it's wise to have a contingent owner listed. A parent is most often the owner of the child's policy, but often there is no provision made on the policy should that parent pass away. Having a contingent owner listed in this situation makes for a smooth transition of ownership. That's one of the many things I can help with when I review policies for you.

Fraternal benefits come with being a member of the Order. One of these fraternal benefits is known as the Spouse's Right to Apply. This benefit is spelled out in each of our insurance contracts and provides a widow with the right to apply for any of our products for up to one year after her husband's death so long as he was an insured member at the time of his death. It's another good reason to become an insured member with the Order. It gives that right to your spouse. One of the advantages of meeting with me is to re-view just these kinds of situations. I hope to put your mind at ease. There are many more fraternal benefits. When I meet with a member and his spouse, I try to make sure I explain all of them that are pertinent. This is all in addition to our financial needs analysis tool that can help determine needs. I think this analysis and the insurance products we offer are two of the most worthwhile benefits the Order provides. This is a robust and cutting edge platform that is used throughout the life insurance industry. We used to use a much simpler form called the Family Service Record to help keep track of important household information if the need ever presented itself. Now one of the benefits I provide to you and your family is to go through this financial needs analysis and help determine where you are now and where you want to go. Your financial health is critical to your family's future security. We'll take a look at your dreams, goals and aspirations and help make sure you're on track to make them become a reality. As always, there is never any requirement to purchase any product, but a baseline or periodic check-up is a wise idea.

I appreciate the trust you've placed in me and the opportunity to serve you! Enjoy the summer!

Fraternally,
Mark Yubeta

Blood Drive Update

Dear Brothers,

We are all set for your next drive scheduled for Thursday, August 17, 2023. Mark the date of your calendars so that you can give the precious gift of life. As usual, we have an elite and wonderful nucleus of donor volunteers willing to give that most precious gift of life, one pint of their blood. And, in some instances, we even have a few folks willing to donate platelets which involves extended donation of gathering and filtering the donor's blood. (The latter results in essentially twice the amount of donor contribution and is highly desirable.) Registration can be handled online; and look for the complete announcement in our upcoming weekly church bulletin

Best Regards, and Christ's Peace be with you,
Brother Bob Bochniarz

Levels of Faith

Dear Brothers

This analysis is from a famous Christian leader about LEVELS OF FAITH with which I agree and thought you might as well.

LEVEL ONE: SIMPLE Faith. This when we have some kind of problem in life, e.g., your job, finances, family problems, etc. and you ask for God's help.

You are typically very independent and have solved some of these kind of issues yourself but would welcome help from God, but you're not sure if God hears you and if you are important enough so God will listen.

LEVEL TWO: GREAT Faith. This is demonstrated several times in the Bible, e.g., A Roman soldier asked Christ to heal his servant and said to Jesus, "Just say the word and my servant will be healed".

Another time when a woman who had hemorrhaged all of her life, just touched Christ's robe and was immediately healed. Jesus's reply was "How GREAT is her faith!"

LEVEL THREE: PERFECT FAITH: It's already a "DONE DEAL". You never question your faith. It is DONE.

Fraternally,
Br. Norm

Saint Junipero Serra July 1, 2023

José Miguel Serra was born the son of a farmer in Spain in 1713. When he was 17, he joined the Franciscans and took the name Junipero. As a priest, he taught philosophy and theology. Then he requested to be a missionary.

In 1749, he sailed for Mexico. After landing in Mexico, Junipero and another friar walked 300 miles to Mexico City. On the way, Junipero was bitten on the leg by a poisonous insect. This leg caused him pain for the rest of his life. At the shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Junipero dedicated his work to her.

In 1767, Junipero was made president of the 14 missions begun by Jesuits in Lower California. Then, when Spaniards took over Upper California in 1769, Junipero went with them. At age 56 and with his leg and foot swollen, he traveled the 900 miles on mule to San Diego, where he founded a mission. Other missions followed: Monterey/Carmel (1770); San Antonio and San Gabriel (1771); San Luis Obispo (1772); San Francisco and San Juan Capistrano (1776); Santa Clara (1777); San Buenaventura (1782). Twelve more were founded after Serra's death. In total, Junipero established 9 of the 21 Franciscan missions along the Pacific Coast.

The missions were communities in which everything was held in common. The Native Americans were taught to grow crops and raise livestock. They learned to read, to sing, and to paint. They learned about the faith and asked to become Catholics.

Junipero once made the long trip back to Mexico City to meet with the military commander and establish rules to protect the Native Americans and the missions. Another time when an uprising left a Franciscan and several others dead, Junipero pleaded that the Native Americans held for the killings be released.

When Junipero was dying, he insisted on walking to the chapel for Holy Communion. He died on August 28, 1784. At his funeral, the weeping drowned out the singing. Junipero is called the father of California. He is buried at Mission San Carlo Borromeo, Carmel, and was beatified in 1988. Pope Francis canonized him in Washington, D.C., on September 23, 2015.

Junipero's missionary life was a long battle with cold and hunger, with unsympathetic military commanders and even with danger of death from non-Christian native peoples. Through it all his unquenchable zeal was fed by prayer each night, often from midnight till dawn. He baptized over 6,000 people and confirmed 5,000. His travels would have circled the globe. He brought the Native Americans not only the gift of faith but also a decent standard of living. He won their love, as witnessed especially by their grief at his death.

Saint Thomas, Apostle July 3, 2023

We feel great kinship for the apostle Thomas because, like him, most of us curiously combine faith and doubt. We sometimes share the enthusiasm St. Thomas expressed when upon Lazarus's death Jesus decided to go to Bethany. "Let's go too," Thomas said to the other disciples, "that we may die with him" (see John 11:16). But also like him we sometimes wonder where Jesus is headed and where he is taking us (see John 14:5).

However, we are most like Thomas because doubts occasionally rattle our brains and cloud our souls. So we all relate to the story of doubting Thomas (see John 20:25–29). Thomas was absent the first time Jesus appeared after his resurrection. The apostle swore he would not believe, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and place my finger in the mark of the nails and place my hand in his side" (v. 25RSV). Eight days later Jesus appeared again and told Thomas to touch his wounds. "My Lord, and my God," Thomas exclaimed, recovering his faith (v. 28).

Some early Christian writers criticized Thomas's faithless behavior. But others praised him for helping us cure our doubts, as Gregory the Great does in this homily:

... For the faithlessness of Thomas aids us in our belief more than does the faith of the disciples who believed. . . . When he is brought to believe by feeling with his own hand, every doubt having been removed, our own mind is confirmed in faith. . . . The divinity cannot be seen by any mortal man. So Thomas saw man and confessed him to be God, saying, "My Lord, and my God." On seeing, then, he believed, and proclaimed him to be God whom he could not see.

Then Jesus spoke these words that give us much joy: "Blessed are they who have not seen and yet have believed" (see John 20:29). This sentence undoubtedly signifies to us who hold in our minds him whom we have not seen in the flesh. But we are signified only if we follow up our faith by works. For he really believes who carries out in deed what he believes.

We do not know for sure where Thomas conducted his missionary activity after Pentecost. Some claim he evangelized among the Parthians. But a stronger tradition says he carried the gospel to India. He is supposed to have recruited the Christians of Malabar and died a martyr by the spear at Mylapore, near Madras. An ancient stone cross there marks the place where his remains lay buried until they were removed to Edessa in 394.

Feast Days And Important Dates -July 2023

Saint Benedict, Abbot July 11, 2023

Benedict's name means "blessed." His most famous monastery, Monte Cassino, has been destroyed and rebuilt three times. His monks follow the motto Ora et labora, which means "Pray and work."

Benedict was born in Nursia, Italy, about 480. His parents were wealthy, so they sent him to Rome to be educated. When he was about 17, he decided to become a hermit. He was disgusted with the wild life of the students. With the help of an old monk, Benedict found a cave on Mount Subiaco about 50 miles south of Rome. He lived there for three years. Men recognized his holiness and joined him.

Sometime around 529, Benedict led a group of monks farther south, where they built Monte Cassino. He wrote his Rule based on a life of liturgical prayer, study, manual labor, and living together in community under a common abbot. The monks' first duty was liturgical prayer. The Benedictine monasteries that spread over Europe became centers of learning, agriculture, hospitality, and medicine. Benedict's monks created illuminated manuscripts. They helped repair the damage caused by the barbarian invaders. Benedict probably died in 547. In art, he is usually shown with his Rule. In 1964, Pope Paul VI named him patron of Europe.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel July 16, 2023

On one side of the mountaintop, the priests of Baal stood next to the stone altar dedicated to their false god. They had been praying aloud all day, but no god had answered them. On the other side, the prophet Elijah stood alone next to a stone altar dedicated to the Lord God, Yahweh. That day Yahweh sent fire from heaven onto the altar, proving that he, Yahweh, was the one true God. The Old Testament records this showdown on Mount Carmel in northern Palestine (1 Kings 18:16-39).

During the many centuries between that event and the year 1156, people who wanted a quiet place to pray and to live close to God began to come together on Mount Carmel. A large monastery was built there to honor the Mother of God. The members of the monastery were called Carmelites.

In 1251, according to the tradition of the Carmelites, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to Simon Stock, the sixth general, or person in charge of the Carmelite Order, and gave him a scapular. The scapular was a long piece of cloth worn over the shoulders and hanging, in front and in back, down to the ankles. After that, all the members of that Carmelite community wore scapulars. Today some religious men and women still wear the full scapular. Some people wear a small scapular made of two small pieces of cloth connected by narrow cord or braid. It, too, is worn over the shoulders. Wearing a scapular medal or the shortened scapular is a way of honoring the Blessed Mother. July 16 is a major feast for all Carmelite priests and sisters.

Saint Mary Magdalene July 22, 2023

Mary Magdalene was one of Christ's disciples. She has been identified with several Marys in the Gospel: Mary, the sister of Martha and Lazarus; Mary, the sinner who washed Jesus' feet with her tears; Mary, a woman who cared for Jesus and his apostles on their journey. Today scholars believe that Mary Magdalene was not the sinful woman in Scripture although she has been confused with this unnamed woman for centuries.

Matthew, Mark, and John record that Mary of Magdala was present at the crucifixion of Jesus and that she was among the women who visited the tomb on Easter morning. Luke mentions her presence only at the tomb on Easter. According to John, Mary was specially privileged to see and speak to the risen Lord on Easter morning. She thought he was the gardener until he said her name.

So Mary Magdalene was near Jesus in his darkest hour and again in his most glorious hour. Moreover, she was an outstanding disciple of Jesus. Because Mary Magdalene was the one who brought the news of Jesus' resurrection to the apostles, she is called the Apostle to the Apostles. For centuries St. Mary Magdalene has been considered a model of complete generosity and of sincere sorrow for sin.

Saint Bridget of Sweden July 23, 2023

From age 7 on, Bridget had visions of Christ crucified. Her visions formed the basis for her activity—always with the emphasis on charity rather than spiritual favors. She lived her married life in the court of the Swedish king Magnus II. Mother of eight children—the second eldest was Saint Catherine of Sweden—Bridget lived the strict life of a penitent after her husband's death.

Feast Days And Important Dates -July 2023

Bridget constantly strove to exert her good influence over Magnus; while never fully reforming, he did give her land and buildings to found a monastery for men and women. This group eventually expanded into an Order known as the Bridgetines.

In 1350, a year of jubilee, Bridget braved a plague-stricken Europe to make a pilgrimage to Rome. Although she never returned to Sweden, her years in Rome were far from happy, being hounded by debts and by opposition to her work against Church abuses. A final pilgrimage to the Holy Land, marred by shipwreck and the death of her son, Charles, eventually led to her death in 1373. In 1999, Bridget, Saint Catherine of Siena and Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, were named co-patronesses of Europe.

Saint James the Greater, Apostle July 25, 2023

Saint James' Story

This James is the brother of John the Evangelist. The two were called by Jesus as they worked with their father in a fishing boat on the Sea of Galilee. Jesus had already called another pair of brothers from a similar occupation: Peter and Andrew. "He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him" (Mark 1:19-20).

James was one of the favored three who had the privilege of witnessing the Transfiguration, the raising to life of the daughter of Jairus, and the agony in Gethsemani.

Two incidents in the Gospels describe the temperament of this man and his brother. Saint Matthew tells that their mother came—Mark says it was the brothers themselves—to ask that they have the seats of honor in the kingdom. "Jesus said in reply, 'You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I am going to drink?' They said to him, 'We can'" (Matthew 20:22). Jesus then told them they would indeed drink the cup and share his baptism of pain and death, but that sitting at his right hand or left was not his to give—it "is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father" (Matthew 20:23b). It remained to be seen how long it would take to realize the implications of their confident "We can!"

The other disciples became indignant at the ambition of James and John. Then Jesus taught them all the lesson of humble service: The purpose of authority is to serve. They are not to impose their will on others, or lord it over them. This is the position of Jesus himself. He was the servant of all; the service imposed on him was the supreme sacrifice of his own life.

On another occasion, James and John gave evidence that the nickname Jesus gave them—"sons of thunder"—was an apt one. The Samaritans would not welcome Jesus because he was on his way to hated Jerusalem. "When the disciples James and John saw this they asked, 'Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?' Jesus turned and rebuked them..." (Luke 9:54-55).

James was apparently the first of the apostles to be martyred. "About that time King Herod laid hands upon some members of the church to harm them. He had James, the brother of John, killed by the sword, and when he saw that this was pleasing to the Jews he proceeded to arrest Peter also" (Acts 12:1-3a).

This James, sometimes called James the Greater, is not to be confused with James the Lesser or with the author of the Letter of James and the leader of the Jerusalem community.

Saints Joachim and Anne, Parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary July 26, 2023

Saints Joachim and Anne's Story

In the Scriptures, Matthew and Luke furnish a legal family history of Jesus, tracing ancestry to show that Jesus is the culmination of great promises. Not only is his mother's family neglected, we also know nothing factual about them except that they existed. Even the names "Joachim" and "Anne" come from a legendary source written more than a century after Jesus died.

The heroism and holiness of these people however, is inferred from the whole family atmosphere around Mary in the Scriptures. Whether we rely on the legends about Mary's childhood or make guesses from the information in the Bible, we see in her a fulfillment of many generations of prayerful persons, herself steeped in the religious traditions of her people.

The strong character of Mary in making decisions, her continuous practice of prayer, her devotion to the laws of her faith, her steadiness at moments of crisis, and her devotion to her relatives—all indicate a close-knit, loving family that looked forward to the next generation even while retaining the best of the past.

Joachim and Anne—whether these are their real names or not—represent that entire quiet series of generations who faithfully perform their duties, practice their faith, and establish an atmosphere for the coming of the Messiah, but remain obscure.

Feast Days And Important Dates -July 2023

Sts. Martha, Mary and Lazarus July 29, 2023

Martha, Mary, and their brother Lazarus were close friends of Jesus. He came to their home as a welcomed guest, rather than as one celebrating the conversion of a sinner like Zacchaeus or one unceremoniously received by a suspicious Pharisee. The sisters felt free to call on Jesus at their brother's death, even though a return to Judea at that time seemed to spell almost certain death.

Martha's great glory is her simple and strong statement of faith in Jesus after her brother's death. "Jesus told her, 'I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?' She said to him, 'Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world'" (John 11:25-27).

Immediately after we are told that the chief priests plotted to kill Lazarus "because many of the Jews were turning away and believing in Jesus because of him." Lazarus was the one of whom the Jews said, "See how much he loved him." In their sight Jesus raised his friend Lazarus from the dead. Legends abound about the life of Lazarus after the death and resurrection of Jesus. He is supposed to have left a written account of what he saw in the next world before he was called back to life. Some say he followed Peter into Syria. Another story is that despite being put into a leaking boat by the Jews at Jaffa, he, his sisters, and others landed safely in Cyprus. There he died peacefully after serving as bishop for 30 years.

On one occasion, Jesus visits them in Bethany and Martha is busy making preparations for their guest while Mary reclines listening to Jesus speak. Martha complains: "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me." The Lord answers, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her." The Lord recognizes that Martha is "worried about many things," also noting that Mary, who has spent the preparation time at Jesus' feet listening to his words "has chosen the better part." John 12:1-8 describes Mary's anointing of Jesus' feet at Bethany, an act which he praised highly.

The memorial of July 29, until 2021 dedicated exclusively to Saint Martha, was expanded to include Mary and Lazarus as well. In its 2021 decree on combining veneration of Mary and Lazarus with Martha, the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Sacraments said, "In the household of Bethany, the Lord Jesus experienced the family spirit and friendship of Martha, Mary and Lazarus, and for this reason the Gospel of John states that he loved them. Martha generously offered him hospitality, Mary listened attentively to his words and Lazarus promptly emerged from the tomb at the command of the one who humiliated death."

Saint Ignatius of Loyola July 31, 2023

Saint Ignatius, the founder of the Jesuits was on his way to military fame and fortune when a cannon ball shattered his leg. Because there were no books of romance on hand during his convalescence, Ignatius whiled away the time reading a life of Christ and lives of the saints. His conscience was deeply touched, and a long, painful turning to Christ began. Having seen the Mother of God in a vision, he made a pilgrimage to her shrine at Montserrat near Barcelona. He remained for almost a year at nearby Manresa, sometimes with the Dominicans, sometimes in a pauper's hospice, often in a cave in the hills praying. After a period of great peace of mind, he went through a harrowing trial of scruples. There was no comfort in anything—prayer, fasting, sacraments, penance. At length, his peace of mind returned.

It was during this year of conversion that Ignatius began to write down material that later became his greatest work, the Spiritual Exercises.

He finally achieved his purpose of going to the Holy Land, but could not remain, as he planned, because of the hostility of the Turks. Ignatius spent the next 11 years in various European universities, studying with great difficulty, beginning almost as a child. Like many others, his orthodoxy was questioned; Ignatius was twice jailed for brief periods.

In 1534, at the age of 43, he and six others—one of whom was Saint Francis Xavier—vowed to live in poverty and chastity and to go to the Holy Land. If this became impossible, they vowed to offer themselves to the apostolic service of the pope. The latter became the only choice. Four years later Ignatius made the association permanent. The new Society of Jesus was approved by Pope Paul III, and Ignatius was elected to serve as the first general.

When companions were sent on various missions by the pope, Ignatius remained in Rome, consolidating the new venture, but still finding time to found homes for orphans, catechumens, and penitents. He founded the Roman College, intended to be the model of all other colleges of the Society.

Ignatius was a true mystic. He centered his spiritual life on the essential foundations of Christianity—the Trinity, Christ, the Eucharist. His spirituality is expressed in the Jesuit motto, Ad maiorem Dei gloriam—"for the greater glory of God." In his concept, obedience was to be the prominent virtue, to assure the effectiveness and mobility of his men. All activity was to be guided by a true love of the Church and unconditional obedience to the Holy Father, for which reason all professed members took a fourth vow to go wherever the pope should send them for the salvation of souls.
